The screenshot shows the Al-Anon Family Groups website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for "Make a Contribution", "Online Bookstore", and "English". Below this is the Al-Anon logo and a search bar. The main banner features a man with his hand on his forehead, looking distressed, with the text "Do you worry about how much someone drinks?". Below the banner is a section titled "Who Are Al-Anon Members?".

The second part of the screenshot shows the "Kentucky Area Al-Anon" page. It features the Al-Anon logo and the text "Kentucky Area Al-Anon" and "Hope and help for families and friends of alcoholics". There is a navigation menu with links for "Meetings", "Alateen", "Events", "Members", and "Resources". Below this is a section titled "Welcome to Kentucky Area Al-Anon" with the text: "Whether it's a family member, friend, coworker, or neighbor, if their drinking is affecting your life, Al-Anon could offer the support and understanding you need." There are two buttons: "Is Al-Anon for You?" and "Find a Meeting". To the right of the text is a photograph of a woman hugging a young girl, with another woman and a child in the background.
